THE MEDALLION

*Linn-Mar
High School
Marion, Iowa
1962-1963
Volume IV*

DEDICATION

We, the yearbook staff, wish to dedicate the 1963 MEDALLION to Jack Ketelsen for his untiring service to the school during his years at Linn-Mar and after graduation.

Jack's outstanding contributions to church, 4-H, and the community, and his musical abilities will also be long remembered and cherished.

ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL

Donald Parkin

Mrs. Mary Gill, secretary.

Principal's Message —

"The 1963 MEDALLION represents a year of pleasant memories at Linn-Mar, and a full measure of accomplishment and growth for each student in preparation for the future.

The efforts of the many students and faculty who performed daily tasks with diligence, merit our respect. We appreciate the contribution and leadership of the many students who have helped to make Linn-Mar what it is.

The Class of 1963 have made a valuable contribution in all phases of our program. We wish them success in the future and congratulate them in the work that they have done at Linn-Mar."

Clifford Wilkins
SUPERINTENDENT

Mrs. Pauline Breed, secretary.

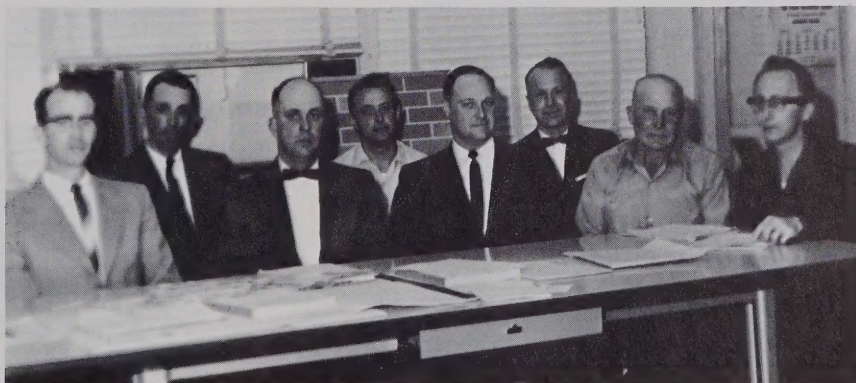

Superintendent's Message —

"The 1963 MEDALLION has reached a milestone in completing four years. The 1963 class will be the first to graduate after four years at Linn-Mar.

I am especially proud of each senior for his contribution to the life of our school and community. I am proud of the MEDALLION for its fine contribution in recording for future years some of these accomplishments.

I wish for the class of 1963 and the teachers many more years of fine service in helping Linn-Mar attain its goals in education."

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the governmental body of the school and represents the students.

This year the Student Council planned the first Homecoming celebration at Linn-Mar and sponsored the annual Christmas Dance.

In addition to these major events, the Student Council sponsored a sock hop, ping pong tournament, and the Spring Fling.

Through Student Council action, student directories and ping pong tables were made available.

Students were permitted to use the ping pong tables before and after school and at noon. Ross Langhurst won the ping pong tournament sponsored by the Student Council in March.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is made up of those students exhibiting high qualities of character, leadership, service and scholarship.

The three senior members conducted initiation ceremonies at a high school assembly on March 22 and inducted eight new members. The five juniors and three seniors were selected by four faculty members.

The Honor Society held a sock hop during the basketball season to earn money for the initiation in the spring.

The National Honor Society officers are: Bud Blackford, president; Mary Jo Matus, secretary; Ron Schope, vice-president.

The new inductees and their parents were honored at a tea following the initiation ceremony.

THESPIANS

The National Thespian Society is an honorary dramatic organization and those who have earned ten or more points in dramatic activities are eligible for membership. A star is awarded for each group of ten points earned after the original ten, which are required for membership. Points may be earned for any work in the dramatics department.

This year the Thespian group has had one theater party and attended "The Music Man." They also had a sock hop. The highlight of the year was the formal initiation of fourteen new members on April 15.

Thespian officers were elected in the spring of 1962. They are from left to right: Jeanette Foster, clerk; Terri Newell, secretary; Pat Jacobs, president; Miss Grimm, sponsor; Alan Beach, vice-president; Phil Scheer, treasurer; Nancy Hughes, historian.

SPEECH CONTEST

Speech Contest consists of two events. The first event was the district contest held at Keystone. The participants in the contest were: Nancy Hughes, Connie Jones, Louise Murray, oratorical division; Linda Burns, Harriett Hoskin, dramatic division; Alan Beach, Barbara Hawk, Winnie Lowe, humorous division; Susan Fernow, Barb Updegraff, Linda Whitman, interpretive prose; Judy Thurn, interpretive poetry.

Alan Beach, Linda Burns, and Connie Jones were chosen to participate in the State Speech Contest at Fayette, where Alan and Connie received "I" ratings.

The Linn-Mar Chapter of Future Teachers was very active this year. The members attended a "Prospective Teachers Day" at the State University of Iowa and sponsored a sock hop in December. Mrs. Darting, Mr. Dochterman, and Miss Crammond spoke at various meetings throughout the year.

During National Education Week, the members showed their appreciation of the teachers with a gift.

On March 5, the Chapter was host to two foreign exchange students, Paloma Ramirez from Spain and Johann Hoglund from Sweden, who spoke to the group and others who were interested.

During the third quarter, the junior and senior members taught classes in the elementary building to gain experience in the field of teaching.

Nancy Hughes talks with two AFS students, Johann Hoglund and Paloma Ramirez, at an FTA sponsored program.

LINN-MAR MEDALLION STAFF

Members of the yearbook staff worked from September to May to prepare for the publication of Linn-Mar's fourth and largest MEDALLION.

Selling advertisements, taking pictures, boosting yearbook sales, preparing layouts, and writing copy kept the staff busy trying to produce a book filled with memories of the year for Linn-Mar students.

As the student body increased so did the efforts of the MEDALLION staff to prepare and produce a better yearbook.

As was done in the past, the staff sold unused pictures of various activities and events to the students that were interested.

LINN-MAR LIFE STAFF

From left to right: Jeanette Foster, Shirlee Kaiser, Ray Joyce, Sandy Gray.

Linn-Mar's newspaper staff increased its publications from once a month to twice a month. The fourteen staff members produced seventeen issues of LINN-MAR LIFE during the year. The second year typing class did a major part of the typing and stenciling and later in the year assisted with reporting and copy writing.

LINN-MAR LIFE is a member of IHSPA and NSPA. The newspaper received First Class Honor

Rating on first semester issues in the sixty-eighth NSPA critical rating service.

Also during the year, the newspaper staff produced a student directory, from which they earned $15.

Editor Helen Crow was trained at the State University of Iowa Journalism Workshop in Iowa City last June.

SPORTS

CROWNING--The gymnasium was filled with students, friends, parents, teachers, and alumni on October 5, to witness the crowning of the Homecoming Queen at the Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Student Council. The queen, Mary Jo Matus, was crowned by co-captains of the football team for that night, Ron Kinkead and Roger Fernow.

HOMEcoming

The candidates were lovely, and the atmosphere was tense, as the crowning of Linn-Mar's first Homecoming Queen drew near. At the half time of the Midland game, the candidates, seated on the decks of convertibles, circled the field and were introduced to the crowd.

The secret voting of Thursday and Friday was revealed when Student Council president, Don Rinderknecht presented the queen, Mary Jo Matus, with a dozen red roses. At the dance following the game, the tiara was placed upon our Homecoming Queen by the co-captains. Her majesty's court consisted of Jeanette Foster, Sharon Oftedahl, Kathy Ketelsen, and Linda Rondeau. The queen received the royal crown from the Student Council, and a necklace from the Pep Club.

Except for occasional colorful plays such as Gary Hansen's 81-yard punt return against Lone Tree, the Lions had very little to cheer about during their first football season, which ended with an 0-6-1 record. Thirteen returning lettermen plus much more experience, however, give promise of better years in the future.

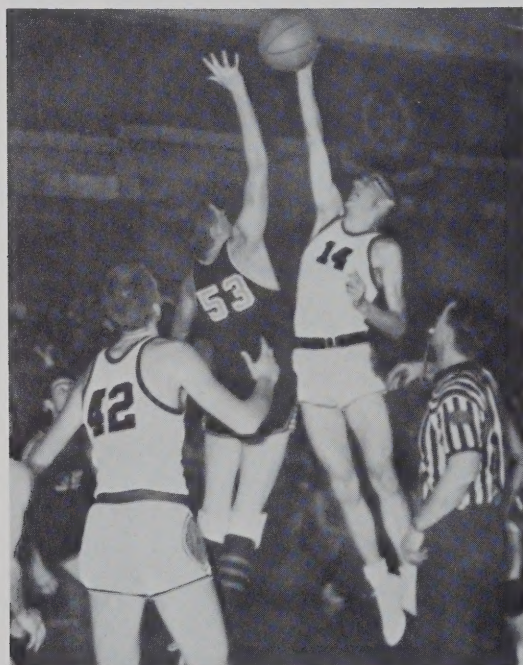

Garry Rudish gains valuable yardage as the Lions stage a line plunge at the Coggon game.

With the help of a fellow player, Dale Lassen brings down one of the Midland players at the Homecoming game. Even though defeated, Linn-Mar scored a moral victory as the Lions made their first touchdown of the season.

Ross Langhurst tips the ball to Rich Morrison.

BASKETBALL

Under the competent coaching of David Darsee, the Lions shared the championship of the All-Ac Conference with Central City. Several outstanding records were set during the year. Dale Lassen scored the most points in a single game (40). Richard Morrison set a new record of 23 rebounds per game. The Lions shattered their offensive scoring record by making 95 points against Coggon.

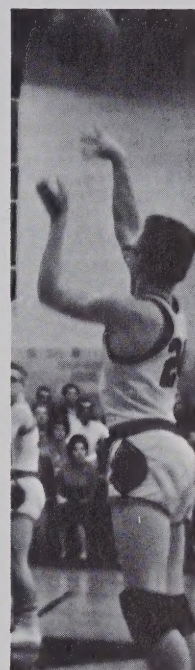

Dale Lassen, Linn-Mar's top scorer, gets away a jump shot.

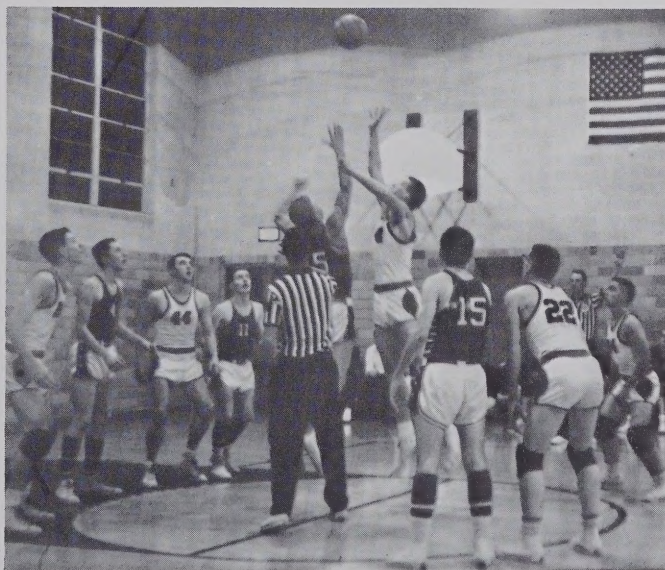

Ken Elam drives in for a layup as two Alburnett players attempt to stop him.

Richard Morrison and Don Rinderknecht demonstrate the art of making a basket.

STUDENT LIFE

Eleanor Roosevelt, Judy Jordan, and Sam Houston, Carl Kissling, were chosen best dressed at the Beaux Arts Ball.

Santa Claus, Ron Schope, makes a nuisance of himself at the Christmas Dance sponsored by the Student Council.

Her Highness, Kathy Ketelsen, and His Majesty, Alan Beach, enjoy the refreshments at the Sweetheart Ball sponsored by the junior class February 9.

Garry Rudish demonstrates, with marked concentration, the limbo, which was popular this year, at the Beaux Arts Ball sponsored by the sophomores.

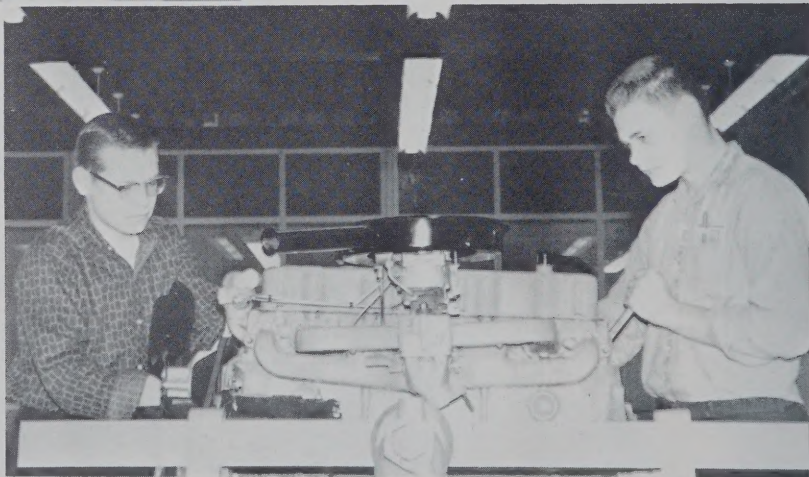

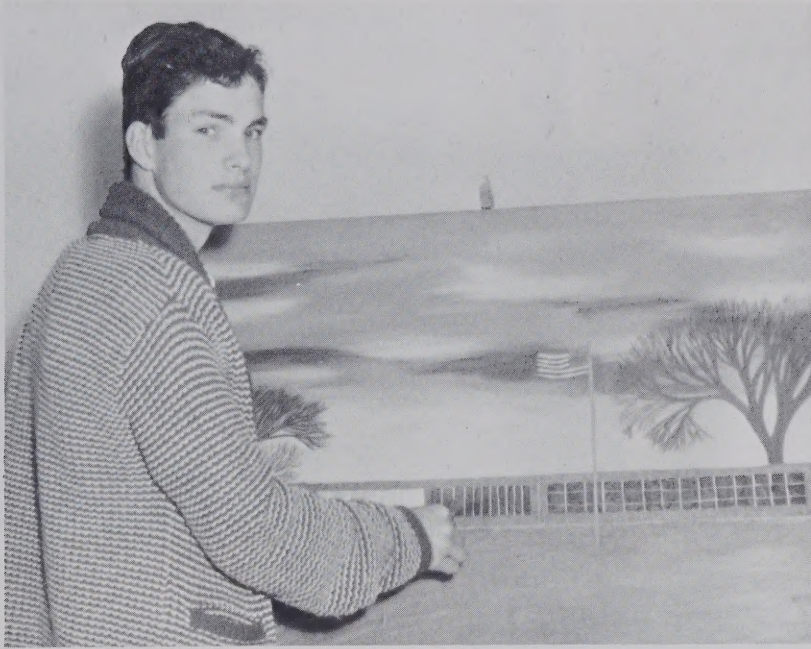

Jim Dunlap and Tony Grenis won top honors in the drafting and crafts division of the statewide Industrial Arts Fair at the State College of Iowa in Cedar Falls.

Mr. Richard Scheer of the McClintic Business Machines Co. demonstrates the Thermo-Fax copying machine to the office practice class.

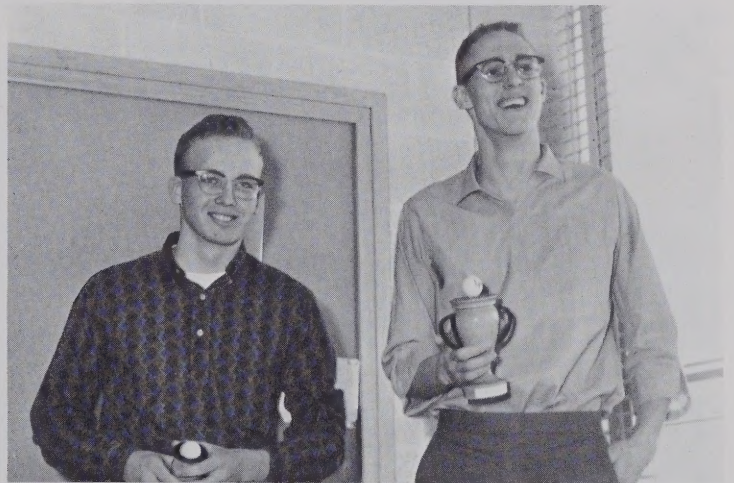

Dave Price and Jim Fisher work on the car motor in the shop. The two 1962 motors were given to the school by General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co.

Dale Vargason is shown with his painting of Linn-Mar High School which he presented to the school.

Don Rinderknecht and Ross Langhurst were the winners of the ping pong tournament sponsored by the Student Council. Don placed second and Ross was the champion.

The Athletic Banquet was held in the gym with a large crowd attending.

A romantic garden filled with roses and moonlight provided the setting for the Prom.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 11 at the Indian Creek Elementary gym.

The theme this year was "Moonlight and Roses" and the Playboys provided the dance music.

The Twist was a popular number at the Junior-Senior Prom.

A sizable crowd of students and faculty alike attended the most formal dance of the year.

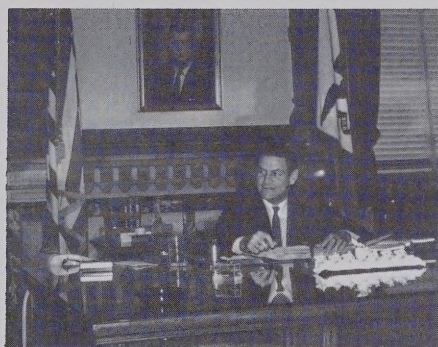

Bill Cole strikes an amusing pose as the class prepares to enter Salisbury House.

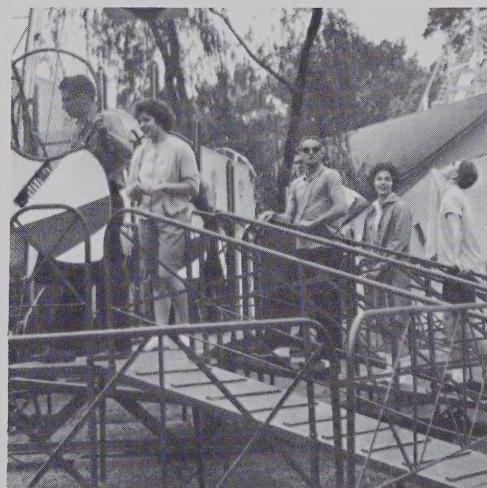

Ron Schope salutes as Sharon, Nancy, Pam, Bud, and Bill pose in front of the Capitol Building.

Annitta Morris plays the piano in Salisbury House as Bob C., Sharon, Nancy, Bill, and Bob T. look on.

During the visit to the Capitol Building, the class saw Governor Hughes at work in his office.

Randy, Pat, Ron S., Dale, Mary Jo, and Paul board one of the rides at Riverview Park in Des Moines.

Jeanette, Roger, Pam and Mr. Simons enjoy the family style supper at the Colony Inn in Amana.

Mr. Parkin and Mr. Darsee presented Miss Grimm with a potted plant from the Linn-Mar faculty.

AWARDS

Diana Budreau received the NOMA Typewriter Award from the Royal Typewriter Co.

Pam Chase received the Good Citizen Award from the Cedar Rapids Bar Association.

Mr. Darsee, baseball coach, presented the spring baseball boys with their awards.

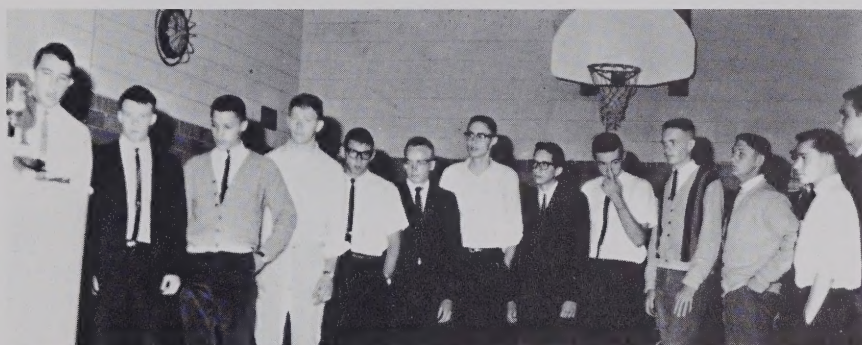

Bill Cole received a book from Mrs. Darting, librarian, for his winning essay on "What I Have Learned From Books."

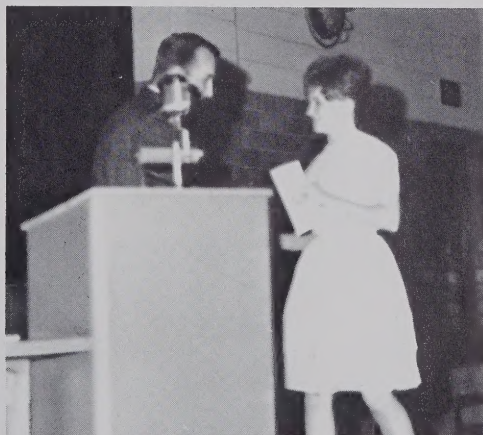

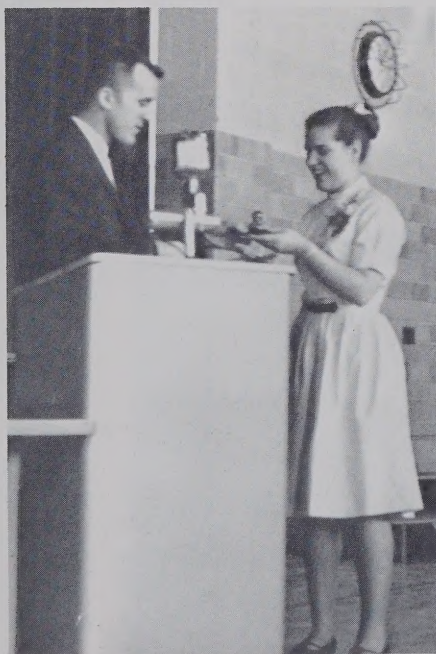

Janet Dukek was presented the Danforth Foundation Award by Mr. Parkin.

DAY

Coach Bob Stephens presents spring track awards to the participating boys.

Helen Crow received the Marion Rural Teachers Assn. $100 scholarship from Mr. Napier.

Jeanette Foster received the John Phillip Sousa Band Award from Mr. Reid.

Oh, Linn-Mar Alma Mater
We pledge our love to thee,
Though years may go
We'll ever show unending loyalty.

From the campus that surrounds us
To far across the sea,
Our hearts we pledge to the black and the red.
Oh, Linn-Mar hail to thee.

The lion is the symbol
Of our loyalty and praise,
We pledge our love and loyalty
Til graduation days.

Graduation will not part us,
Though we're gone our separate ways.
Our hearts we pledge to the
 black and the red,
Oh, Linn-Mar hail to thee.
